The above control framework provides specific controls mapped to each identified risk, ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements and traceability to the source documents.